REGISTRATIONS FOR RENEWAL OF COPYRIGHTS CAN ONLY BE MADE DURING THE LAST YEAR OF THE EXISTING TERM.

DIRECTIONS.

*When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (1) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as".

If the author is not living and application is made (a) by the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.

If (b) by the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.

If (c) by the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted.

If (d) by the next of kin of the author, who is not living, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will", should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

REGISTRATIONS FOR RENEWAL OF COPYRIGHTS CAN ONLY BE MADE DURING THE LAST YEAR OF THE EXISTING TERM

DIRECTIONS

* When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (1) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as".

If the author is not living and application is made by

- (a) the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.
- (b) the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.
- (c) the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted.
- (d) the next of kin of the author, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will", should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE

Renewal registration may be made by the proprietor only under the following conditions, and in such cases the form of claim (to be given in space (1) of the renewal application) MUST be substantially in the form shown below:

1. If the work is posthumous or composite and if the copyright has been secured originally by the proprietor thereof, the present proprietor may renew as
  - (a) "Proprietor of the posthumous work";
  - (b) "Proprietor of the composite work."
2. If the work has been copyrighted by a corporate body otherwise than as assignee or licensee of the individual author, the proprietor may renew as
"Proprietor of a work copyrighted by a corporate body otherwise than as assignee or licensee of the author."
3. If the work had been copyrighted by the employer for whom such work was made for hire, the proprietor may renew as
"Proprietor of copyright in a work made for hire."

Form of Renewal Application

REGISTRATIONS FOR RENEWAL OF COPYRIGHTS CAN ONLY BE MADE DURING THE LAST YEAR OF THE EXISTING TERM.

DIRECTIONS.

*When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (1) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as".

If the author is not living and application is made (a) by the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.

If (b) by the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.

If (c) by the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted.

If (d) by the next of kin of the author, who is not living, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will", should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

DIRECTIONS.

* When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (2) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as."

If the author is not living and application is made (a) by the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.

If (b) by the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.

If (c) by the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted

If (d) by the next of kin of the author, who is not living, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will," should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

Sec. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors, or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

Application for an EXTENSION of a renewal copyright should be made on an R2 blank.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

DIRECTIONS.

* When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (2) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as."

If the author is not living and application is made (a) by the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.

If (b) by the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.

If (c) by the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted.

If (d) by the next of kin of the author, who is not living, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will," should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors, or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

Sec. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors, or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

Application for an EXTENSION of a renewal copyright should be made on an H3 blank.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

Sec. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors, or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

Application for an EXTENSION of a renewal copyright should be made on an H3 blank.

REGISTRATIONS FOR RENEWAL OF COPYRIGHTS CAN ONLY BE MADE DURING THE LAST YEAR OF THE EXISTING TERM.

DIRECTIONS.

*When the author is living and application is made by or for him, the words "the author" should be inserted in the blank at (1) left for that purpose after the words "copyright is claimed by me, us, as".

If the author is not living and application is made (a) by the widow or widower, then the words "the widow of the author" or "the widower of the author" should be inserted.

If (b) by the child or children of the deceased author, then the words "the child of the deceased author" or "the children of the deceased author" should be inserted.

If (c) by the executors of the will of the author, then the words "the executors of the author" should be inserted.

If (d) by the next of kin of the author, who is not living, then the words "the next of kin of the author, who is not living, there being no will", should be inserted.

USE A SEPARATE BLANK FOR EACH TITLE.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.

COPYRIGHT ACT OF MARCH 4, 1909.

Provision for the Renewal and Extension of Existing Copyright.

SEC. 24. That the copyright subsisting in any work at the time when this Act goes into effect may, at the expiration of the term provided for under existing law, be renewed and extended by the author of such work if still living, or the widow, widower, or children of the author, if the author be not living, or if such author, widow, widower, or children be not living, then by the author's executors or in the absence of a will, his next of kin, for a further period such that the entire term shall be equal to that secured by this Act, including the renewal period: Provided, however, That if the work be a composite work upon which copyright was originally secured by the proprietor thereof, then such proprietor shall be entitled to the privilege of renewal and extension granted under this section: Provided, That application for such renewal and extension shall be made to the Copyright Office and duly registered therein within one year prior to the expiration of the existing term.
